

Lynda.com through the Salt Lake County Library – <https://www.slcolibrary.org/>

If you already have a Salt Lake County library card, Click on the Learn heading, then scroll down to Lynda.com and click on it. You will then need to put in your library card # and PIN. If you do not have a library card, you can sign up for one on the website, or if you do not live in the Salt Lake County area, you may contact a county library, or go into any county library, show your employee ID badge, and the fee will be waived.

The image shows a screenshot of the Salt Lake County Library website. The top navigation bar is dark blue with white text for 'Events', 'Learn', 'What We Have', and 'We Recommend'. A red banner below the navigation bar contains the text 'Face masks are required in all S'. Below this is a black header for Lynda.com with a search bar and 'Sign In' and 'Sign Up' buttons. A dark grey navigation bar contains links for 'Start My Free Month', 'Reactivate', 'Solutions for: Business', 'Higher Education', 'Government', and 'Buy For My Team'. The main content area features a light blue background with a pattern of stylized eyes. A white login modal is centered on the screen, titled 'Welcome to lynda.com'. It prompts the user to log in and provides input fields for 'Library Card Number' and 'Library Card PIN'. A 'Log in' button is at the bottom of the modal. Below the input fields, it states: 'Your library can access and retain your learning activity. Our Privacy Policy applies.'
